feading off with some strictly local allusion. Of course that's a trick, but lusion. Of course that's a trick, but it's a trick employed by a good many eminent orators. I was broken of it myself by rather a peculiar incident.

"One day some years ago I happened to be in a town where a large commercial college is located and was invited by the president to make a few remarks to the boys during the noon re cess. The con founded door had 'Push' on one side and 'Pull' on the other. I had taken my text from the wrong side."-New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Fitzsimmons looked sheepish and ill at ease, but Mr. Sherman evidently tried to make him

Mr. Fitzsimmons uttered a couple of inaudible words and grinned. "It seemed to have pretty thorough-

Mr. Fitzsimmons scrutinized the brim of his hat attentively, blushed, grinned and said:
"The United States is a fine country your honor," and backed out of the office, responding with short, sharp ducks of the head to the secretary of state's farewell bows. When the doors had closed upon the then world's champlon, the wrinkles at the sides of Mr. Sherman's eyes contracted into a
